Several U.S. Coast Guard officers were in command of major units at D-day. CAPT Miles Inlay, USCG, commanded Flotilla 10 which consisted of 24 LCIs manned entirely by Coast Guard officers and crew with six U.S. Navy-manned LCIs also assigned; half to Utah and half to Omaha. Also included were the USS Bayfield (APA-33) which served as the Flagship, Assault Force “U.” CAPT Lyndon Spencer, USCG, Commanding and the USS Joseph T. Dickman (APA-13), CAPT Raymond Mauerman, USCG, Commanding.